A Message from Mayor Jerry P. Weiers

Glendale is Arizona's 5th largest city but has the best hometown feel. As Mayor, I have worked hard to keep and grow this hometown feeling by creating and bringing back events that bring us together as a community – all without using taxpayer money.

In my first year, I brought back fireworks to Glendale, created a massive event to help our veterans, and organized fundraisers for many worthy causes and a teddy bear drive to give to children during a crisis.

Of all of the events I have worked on, the one that best conveys the hometown feel of Glendale is the Hometown Christmas Parade. The parade was established to help celebrate the true reason for the season. And we're bringing it back again this year!

While this event is not a City of Glendale sponsored or funded event, it is a huge benefit to our community. Last year's parade collected food donations and ultimately contributed nearly $10,000 to Hope for Hunger food bank.

Going east on Glendale Avenue from 51st to 59th Avenues, this year's parade will be even bigger and better.

If you or an organization you belong to (such as a band, church, Boy/Girl Scout troop, etc.) would like to participate, please visit www.hometownchristmasparade.org to register an entry or to volunteer (entries due on November 21).

As always, you can reach me by phone at 623-930-2260 or email at mayorweiers@glendaleaz.com. You can also follow me on Facebook (facebook.com/MayorWeiers), Twitter (@MayorWeiers), and YouTube (youtube.com/MayorWeiers).
