GLENDALE COUNCILMEMBER JAMIE ALDAMA SHOWCASES ARIZONA'S ONLY DRIVE-IN THEATER ON THE NEXT "GLENDALE TODAY"

Glendale, Ariz. Councilmember Jamie Aldama, who represents the Ocotillo District, takes viewers to Glendale's West Wind All Digital Drive-In during the latest edition of "Glendale Today" which is slated to begin airing Friday, May 26, at 8 p.m. on Glendale 11.

Councilmember Aldama's guest on the program is Travis Brown who is the general manager for the theater.

The program allows viewers to join Councilmember Aldama as they learn about the long and interesting history of this family-owned business. West Wind All Digital Drive-In is the state's only drive-in theater and a great place for family entertainment. The theater offers a mix of old-school vibe combined with the latest digital technology. West Wind is also the site of the #1 swap meet in Arizona, sometimes drawing as many as 5,000 people each weekend.

"Glendale Today" is a production of city-owned Glendale 11 TV station and airs daily on Glendale 11. The show is also available through the city's online video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. Exclusive segments can be found on the city's YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. For more information about the new "Glendale Today" TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
