COUNCILMEMBER JOYCE CLARK HIGHLIGHTS IMPORTANT WORK OF POLICE ON “GLENDALE TODAY”

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Councilmember Joyce Clark, of the Yucca District, takes viewers “behind the scenes” during filming of the popular reality TV series “COPS” in the latest edition of “Glendale Today.”

The Glendale 11 TV show is slated to begin airing 8 p.m., Friday, July 7, 2017.

Councilmember Clark interviews Glendale Police Chief Rick St. John as well as members of the COPS crew who were in town spending time with the Glendale Police Department. One of the longest-running TV shows in America, “COPS” show follows law-enforcement officers during patrols and other police activities.

Viewers will learn why the Glendale Police Department was selected to be featured on the show and how the filming process works. This topic is important to Councilmember Clark, who is at the forefront in voicing her support of local law enforcement. “I appreciate every member of our city’s P.D. and the work they do to protect us,” said Clark. “During this special episode of our show, I wanted to highlight our own city’s police department through the camera lens of “COPS” which shows the challenges they face every day,” said Councilmember Clark. “We can’t thank our officers enough for putting their lives on the line for us and the great work they do every day.”

“Glendale Today” is a production of the city-owned Glendale 11 TV station and it airs daily on Glendale
