GLENDALE VICE MAYOR IAN HUGH FOCUSES ON APOLLO HIGH SCHOOL’S SPECIAL ACADEMIC AND STUDENT ACTIVITIES.

Glendale, Ariz. -- Vice Mayor, Ian Hugh of the Cactus District highlights the robust clubs, organizations and athletic programs at Apollo High School in the latest edition of “Glendale Today,” slated to begin airing Friday, March 24 at 8 p.m., on Glendale 11.

The Vice Mayor goes on a school tour with Principal Brooke Parsons where he learns about the DECA program and the awards the Apollo team earned this year. Principal Parsons also describes the achievements of the visual arts, performing arts, NJROTC, Future Business Leaders of America and the Culinary Arts Programs as well as the school’s dance & cheer activities and Boys Varsity Basketball team.

Viewers will also learn about the on-campus pre-school which is open to the public and allows students interested in early childhood development hands-on experience while under the watchful eye of knowledgeable full-time staff.

“Glendale Today” is a production of city-owned Glendale 11 TV station and airs daily on Glendale 11. The show is also available through the city’s online video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. Exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. For more information about the new “Glendale Today” TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
