GLENDALE KICKS OFF SPRING FAMILY MOVIE SERIES FEBRUARY 24 IN MURPHY PARK IN DOWNTOWN GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Ariz. –The city of Glendale’s Office of Special Events will begin the second year of its spring family movie series in downtown Glendale’s E. Lowell Rogers Amphitheatre on Friday, Feb. 24 at 6 p.m. The spring Movies by Moonlight series will screen movies every other Friday evening, through April 21.

The free movies include family-favorite box office hits, and will be preceded by fun activities in Murphy Park, with themes to go along with the films. Activities may include make-and-take crafts, inflatables and/or games and prizes. The lineup includes:

Friday, Feb. 24:	“The Sandlot”	Celebrate the start of spring training season with Camelback Ranch
Friday, March 10:	“Space Jam”	Countdown to the NCAA Men’s Final Four in Glendale
Friday, March 24:	“The Lorax”	Celebrate Dr. Suess’ birthday!
Friday, April 7:	“Hop”	Enjoy pre-Easter activities
Friday, April 21:	“Cars”	Car racing zooms into the Valley

Free parking is also available throughout the downtown area and in the City Hall parking garage at the corner of 59th and Glendale avenues. Visitors are encouraged to head downtown early to enjoy dinner or snacks at one of the local restaurants before the movie. Information about downtown Glendale is available online at www.visitglendale.com or by calling the Glendale Visitor Center at 623-930-4500.
