REGISTER FOR ONE OF GLENDALE'S SUMMER DAY CAMPS TO KEEP KIDS ACTIVE, ENGAGED DURING SUMMER BREAK

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The city of Glendale Parks & Recreation Division offers two day camp options this summer, one at Foothills Recreation & Aquatics Center, and one at Desert Mirage Elementary School.

Registration is open now for the Foothills 360 Summer Camp that runs 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., May 30 through Aug. 4, at Foothills Recreation & Aquatics Center, 5600 W. Union Hills Dr.

This popular, supervised program provides fun, age-appropriate programming for kids ages 6 to 11. Kids will enjoy swimming, rock wall climbing, gymnasium games, arts and crafts, guest speakers and active games. The Monday through Friday drop-in program fills quickly. Space is limited and available on a first-registered, first-served basis. Register for one week or multiple weeks, as long as space is available. Each child will need to bring a daily non-perishable lunch and snacks. Lunch and snacks can also be purchased at the on-site café.

Weekly enrollment fees are $110/week (non-residents $145/week), with no pre-registration fees. All refund or cancellation requests must be made by Wednesday of the week prior to scheduled attendance to allow for individuals on the wait list to be contacted. All cancellation/refund requests will include a $25 processing fee per week, per child.

For more information on this program, call 623-930-4600 or visit www.glendaleaz.com/foothillscenter to register.

The second summer option, which begins registration on Monday, May 1, is the Drop-In Recreation Program at Desert Mirage Elementary, 8605 W. Maryland Ave. This exciting summer drop-in recreation program is offered for kids entering kindergarten through eighth grade and will provide enriching recreational opportunities in a comfortable and fun atmosphere for all youth to express themselves, meet new friends and be physically active. Program activities include sports, group games, free play, creative art, STEM experiments, game challenges, summer reading adventures, movie time, special events and lots of fun.

The Monday through Friday program runs from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. May 30 through July 28, but will be closed on Tuesday, July 4. Weekly enrollment fees are $50/week (non-residents $60/week). Each child will need to bring a daily non-perishable lunch and snacks.
