Free Summer Band Concerts Bring Music To Downtown Glendale Summer Evenings. The West Valley's favorite summer tradition continues its 49th season in downtown Glendale. The eight-week concert series takes place each Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Murphy Park Amphitheater. The series runs through July 23 so enjoy this FREE entertainment while it lasts!

Snacks and refreshments will be available for purchase at the concerts. For more information, including concert schedules and artist information, please call the Glendale's Special Events hotline at 623-930-2299, or visit www.glendaleaz.com/events.

Glendale To Host Public Meetings On Proposed Anti-Discrimination Ordinance. The City of Glendale will hold public meetings to allow residents an opportunity to share their thoughts on whether the city should adopt an anti-discrimination ordinance. The Glendale City Council has expressed specific interest in hearing feedback from Glendale residents. An ordinance, if adopted, would protect the rights of Glendale citizens and visitors from discrimination in

If you cannot attend any of the meetings but would like to offer input, you can leave comments on a recorded phone line at 623-930-2255. The city has also set up a special email address to receive written comments. That email address is Glendale Feedback. Please know, all written and spoken comments will become part of the official record of public input for this process. For more information, please contact the Glendale City Manager's Office at 623-930-2870.

Glendale Police Promote A Summer of Safety

In an effort to keep our children safe this summer, the Glendale Police Department would like to inform parents and children about city ordinances that outline curfew for those under the age of 18. Juveniles under the age of 16 have a curfew of 10:00 p.m.-5:00 a.m. Those 16 and older have a curfew of 12:00 a.m. - 5:00 a.m. It is also a violation for a parent or guardian to allow a juvenile to violate the curfews that are in place. The entire city ordinance can be viewed here.

Glendale Police Department Joins the Conversation on Nextdoor, the Private Social Network for Neighborhoods.

The Glendale Police Department announced today that it will be joining the conversation on Nextdoor (nextdoor), the private social network for neighborhoods, to improve citywide and neighbor-to-neighbor communications. With Nextdoor, Glendale residents can create private neighborhood websites to share information, including neighborhood public safety issues, community events and activities, local services, and even lost pets. The police department will be able to post information, such as important news, services, programs, free events, and emergency notifications to Nextdoor websites within the city.

Those interested in joining their neighborhood's Nextdoor website can visit www.nextdoor.com and enter their address. If residents have questions about their Nextdoor website, please visit help.nextdoor.com.

Fireworks at Westgate. What could be better than a hometown firework display for July 4? How about adding live music stages (Fountain Park and Events Plaza), a beer garden (Events Plaza) and more! The event will take place on Saturday, July 4 from 5-9:30 p.m. at the Westgate Entertainment District located at 6751 North Sunset Boulevard. For more information, visit Westgate
