Glendale's Boards & Commissions

Community participation is a cornerstone to the City of Glendale's success. Residents play an essential role in shaping our City through volunteerism and providing valuable feedback to our elected officials and City leaders.

Citizen involvement and input is essential to the success of local government. The City encourages you to consider applying for appointment to one of Glendale's boards and commissions.

The time commitment for service on a board or commission varies, but most meet at least once a month for several hours.

Board and commission members are appointed by the Glendale City Council.

Please look over the following list of boards and commission to find one that interests you.
